An Exclusive Event for Committed Leaders: Working in Partnership with the United Nations to Create Sustainable Markets

Chaired by United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon

In an increasingly interconnected world, companies face an ever-widening array of material risks and opportunities in the environmental, social and governance realms. Companies that proactively address these issues through the implementation of corporate citizenship practices and multistakeholder partnerships are better positioned to generate long-term value, while at the same time delivering benefits to society. The United Nations Global Compact Leaders Summit – the largest event ever convened by the United Nations on the topic of corporate citizenship – will equip leaders from all sectors with the strategic intelligence, resources and tools they need to create value in the broadest sense.

Speakers include:

- Sir Mark Moody-Stuart • Chairman | Anglo American plc
- Ms. Anne Lauvergeon • Chairman of the Executive Board | Areva
- Mr. Neville Isdell • Chairman and Chief Executive Officer | The Coca-Cola Company
- Mr. Toshio Anima • President | Fuji Xerox Company Ltd
